

Peak Retreats launches winter activities programme to enhance its ski holidays

French Alps specialist Peak Retreats, the UK's only employee-owned ski holiday company, is making ski holidays even more memorable this winter by offering clients the option to pre-book a range of exciting activities alongside their accommodation, travel and other extras such as lift passes, ski hire, ski school and spa treatments.

From an adventure-filled mountain rescue escape game to a magical evening in a yurt, these experiences are designed to add something extra special to a ski holiday.

New for winter 2025/26, Peak Retreats' clients can now secure activities in advance, ensuring hassle-free planning and guaranteed availability, with no need to leave it to chance in resort.

Clients can pre-book activities in the French Alps resorts of Montgenèvre, Tignes le Lac, La Rosière, Val Thorens, Les Menuires and Samoëns.

Pre-bookable experiences include:

- Après ski snowshoe walks with Wigwam fondue evening in Montgenèvre
- Paragliding in Val Thorens
- An evening in an authentic Mongolian yurt in Tignes Le Lac
- Snake glisse – a convoy of sledges in La Rosière
- Snowshoe walking in Les Menuires
- Biathlon introduction sessions in Samoëns

Alison Willis, Managing Director at Peak Retreats, said: "We know that shared experiences make holidays truly memorable. Resorts offer so many activities beyond skiing but booking them directly can be tricky. We wanted to make it simpler for our clients to book these extras as part of their holiday package, building something extra special into clients' trips".

Example packages:

Montgenèvre ski holiday with Tipi Village evening: Stay in the historic ski resort of Montgenèvre right on the Italian border.
